Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-19, drawn to trailer dolly, classified in class 180, subclass 11.
 - II. Claim 20, drawn to a mounting system, classified in class 208, subclass 476.1.
 - III. Claims 21-24, drawn to a method of transporting, classified in class 180, subclass 19.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, Invention I has separate utility such as not requiring to be mounted to a trailer via a mounting system. For example, it can be manually lifted by a user, and placed in a storage compartment of either the trailer, or the towing vehicle. Also, it can be directly attached to the trailer instead of using a connecting/mounting accessory. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). Here, the dolly can be transported manually via a compartment in either the trailer or towing vehicle.

Art Unit: 3611

Inventions II and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). Here, the method of transporting the dolly can include a step of lifting the dolly, and placing it in a compartment in either the trailer or towing vehicle.

If Applicant elects Invention I, then election must be made as to one of the following:

Species I – fig 1, or

Species II – fig 5,

AND, to the following Subspecies of transmissions:

Subspecies I – fig 2, or

Subspecies II – fig 9.

If Applicant elects Invention II or III, then election must be made as to one of the following Subspecies of mounting systems:

Subspecies I – fig 3, or

Subspecies II – fig 4, or

Subspecies III – fig 6.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, Claims 1, 2, 6 and 17-19 are generic with respect to Invention I, and Claims 21 and 24 are generic with respect to Invention III.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 3611

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
